

ALD Members-

Last week at our meeting, one of the ideas that was suggested was an ALD-sponsored date auction to raise money for a charity. The officers spent the last week working out details, and we have decided to go forward with this idea.

We would love to have a social event where people in and out of ALD could auction themselves off as dates, for a worthy cause (which will ultimately be decided by you, the ALD members). This event would be a blast, not to mention a great way to meet people. We need music, a host, advertising, and most importantly YOU! We need your help to make this event successful and profitable. We're having a planning committee meeting on Wednesday Oct. 10 at 6pm in Campus Center room 174-76 (that sounds like 3 rooms, but it should only be one). Come share your ideas and help us plan. Why not offer yourself or a friend (doesn't need to be in ALD) as a potential date? We've gotten the planning started, but it can't go anywhere without the effort of our members.

Hope to see you there! =)
