1. Explain in terms of the checking of features why each of the following is ungrammatical.
   a. *Us left.
   b. *Was arrested Bart.
   c. *Her likes he.
   d. *We writes many papers.
   e. *They believe he to be a spy.

2. Explain in terms of the checking of features why each of the following is ungrammatical, and draw the tree to illustrate.
   a. *Kim was given a book to.
   b. *It seems Kim to be intelligent.
   c. *Kim seems is intelligent.
   d. *Arrived Gilgamesh.

3. Give the derivation of each of the following sentences. (For (d), it will be a derivation with some features left unchecked)
   a. Monty snored.
   b. Several packages arrived.
   c. James is believed to be considered to be a spy.
   d. *It is believed him to be a spy.

4. The textbook doesn't explain how Case, agreement and EPP feature checking work in sentences like the following, which most English speakers find to be grammatical (at least if there's an adverb before them, such as "suddenly").

   There arrived three important packages.
   a. State what problem is posed by the grammaticality of such sentences.
   b. Suggest a derivation for this sentence. You may have to make some special assumptions about how certain features are checked.